

Artist in residence, Petra Pennington, right, will host more screen printing on Saturday.

Events at Square Deal

ON Saturday, Deveron Projects has a screenprinting and storytelling workshop.

Current artist in residence Petra Pennington is hosting the workshop as part of the recent call for writing on the theme of time. Submitted texts will be read aloud.

Selected excerpts will be screenprinted and bound into chap books for participants to take away and there will be plenty of opportunity to have a hands on go at screenprinting.

This event takes place between 2pm and 5pm in Square Deal.

The following Saturday, July 9, a listening and attunement workshop will take place with the art collective Those Who Possess Dirt. It is part of Hussein Mitha's project The World is Ours, In Spite of All, exploring climate justice and how it can repair the world.

The workshop will explore and involve making listening devices like hearing trumpets and megaphones, to help participants tune in to nature.

There will be walks, collaging, zine-making, a short film and locally foraged food from chef artist Kawther Luay. The event is between 2pm and 6pm in Square Deal. Booking is advised for both events at www.deveron-projects.com/events.
