

Learn to make compost and cook

LOCAL arts organisation Deveron Projects will be running a compost workshop with gardener Lindy Young next Wednesday, July 27, from 2pm-4pm in the Brander Garden.

Lindy will be sharing what makes a really great compost heap, plus how to put together an organic fertiliser that plants will love. She will also demonstrate ways to create your own wormery. There will also be quizzes, facts, mud cake, jelly worms, tea and coffee.

The workshop is free and suitable for all ages. Book through Eventbrite, linked at www.deveron-projects.com/events/compost-workshop/
■ Deveron Projects' monthly Food Chain cookery workshop will be led by Ian Rainbird, head chef at Huntly's The Bank Restaurant and Café.

Ian will be sharing how to make whisky cured hake with strawberries, cucumber and dill.

The event is on Monday, July 25, from 6pm-8pm in Square Deal. Book by emailing jess@deveron-projects.com or for more information visit www.deveron-projects.com/events